IN CASE OF FIRE—
CALL H4-1010

Vol. VIII

Lakeside, San Diego County, California, Thursday, April 9, 1953

No. 2

— EDITORIAL COMMENTS —

It is obvious to most Lakesiders that there are either too many conflicting dates to be kept or not enough days in the week.

It is also apparent that too many Lakesiders are apathetic about local affairs that directly concern them with the result that they suddenly find their pocket books suffering. An example of this was seen at the Lakeside School Board of Trustees meeting Wednesday, April 1. Despite the fact that advance press notices were published plus the fact that Trustee Linley sent out some fifty letters to local residents urging them to make every effort to be present, less than forty people attended.

The same condition prevails with the Citizens Advisory Committee and the Chamber of Commerce.

In the meeting of the School Board there is at present very little unanimity, two schools of thought seem to prevail on most subjects.

For the Star to report this as it sees it would give our readers cause to think the Star was not impartial. Therefore, we ask that all taxpayers attend these meetings and STAY TO THE FINISH. The reason we emphasize this is that at the last meeting fireworks began after the meeting adjourned. Our reporter naturally took this to be it and left. The result was that he missed the main act. From now on he will stay till he has seen the last trustee get into his limousine.

Meanwhile we urge all who are interested in their children's education and the cost to attend these meetings, or to borrow from Frank Zeglis, stop yelping.

In last week's issue a letter to the Star from Jim Eakes, local business man, was inserted as a news item instead of a letter to editor giving his opinions on another serious local matter. In his letter Mr. Eakes took up the matter of our Fire Department.

We quote his figures: Approximately 1500 families reside in our so-called fire district with only 368 paying the $5.00 per year needed to maintain our volunteer fire department. As a matter of fact, there are over 2,000 families in the Lakeside area who look to our fire department for protection. As the picture stands 368 are bearing the cost while 1632 for some reason or other feel they are entitled to call our fire department yet won't pay $5.00 per year for this protection.

We feel that Eakes brought up a good point. Another matter that appears to be going nowhere fast is the Memorial Building. Rumors have it that the Chamber of Commerce are to be contacted with the aim of having them take over.

The way we see it this is a matter for the V. F. W. to handle. There is as we all know a limit to the load a volunteer body can handle.

Summarizing our problems, we feel that the only solution is a new body comprising all present bodies to be organized thus eliminating the many conflicting meetings and thereby taking care of our local growing pains.

The Star would appreciate opinions from our readers in this. After all we all want the best for our community.

Noted Author and Lecturer to Be Speaker at C of C

Lakeside has just recently been given great publicity throughout the United States and some foreign countries, by the publication of Sales-Genetics, How to Analyze People and Sell Profitably. The author of this book is our own Walter McAdams, noted lecturer and author, who will be the speaker at the Chamber of Commerce dinner Monday night.

Walter McAdams has many years of experience in his specialized field of scientific merchandising, having been associated with such companies as the Ford Motor Co., National Pipe Products and other equally large companies. He has been giving courses to executive and sales personnel and counselor service on sales and human relations to many of the larger business firms, advertising agencies and professional men and women throughout the United States.

His recent book, which shows Lakeside as the publishing town, was written to augment his courses and will undoubtedly prove to be the Bible in sales and human relation professions. Mr. McAdams is now planning an eastern lecture tour and this will be the last opportunity, for awhile, of hearing his most interesting program. His talk will include demonstrations of personality analysis which always proves extremely interesting.

Dinner will be served at 7:00 and the program will start at 8:00 for those who are unable to attend for dinner.

Bonding Issue Scheduled For Vote April 21

Once again it is being put squarely up to the voters whether or not they wish high school students to continue double session or to authorize bonds in the amount of $2,500,000, the proceeds to be used to finance construction of a high school on the El Cajon site, and purchase two more sites, one in the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove area, the other in the Lakeside-Santee area.

For those who feel that a bond issue is unnecessary it is hoped that a more complete idea of the need for new school and sites can be gained from the questions asked of and answers given by Lewis Smith, district supt., Grossmont HI School district.

Q. Why is this building program necessary?
A. The combined capacity of Helix and Grossmont is 3400. The present enrollment is 3700 and next year will be over 4200. By 1960 the enrollment will be over 7200.

Q. What effect would approval of bonds have on the tax rate?
A. The cost to the average

School Financial Problem Explained At Public Hearing

About thirty-five interested Lakeside citizens who attended the special public budget hearing conducted by the Board of Trustees at the Lindo Park multipurpose room on Wednesday evening, April 1st, 1953, heard a full explanation of the financial problems which confront this school district.

District Financial History Reviewed.

Mr. C. Rupert Linley, Clerk of the School Board, who had been commissioned by the Board to arrange the meeting, presided, and opened the meeting by introducing Mr. Francis Darby, Assistant County Superintendent of Schools. Mr. Darby summarized the financial operations of the Lakeside School District, year by year, since 1943, and compared local school costs with State averages for schools of similar size. Mr. Darby pointed out that the cost per child in Lakeside had been consistently lower than state averages for similar districts. He also complimented the District on the fact that the record reveals that the percentage of the school budget spent locally on administration and other operating costs, has been reduced each year, while the share devoted to teachers' salaries and educational supplies has been increased. Also commended by Mr. Darby was the fine record of community teamwork achieved by this District in meeting the school building needs, as indicated by the tremendous majorities by which our citizens have each year, since 1947, passed school bond issues.

School Budget Analyzed.

After Mr. Darby's presentation, Mr. Linley introduced Mr. James McPherrin, School Business Assistant, who gave a detailed explanation of the tentative school budget for next year. "Anticipated revenues," Mr. McPherrin stated, "would amount, on the basis of conservative estimates, to about $288,000.00, derived 80% from State, and 20% from local sources." Disbursements, based on present salary schedules and on carefully scheduled cost estimates of non-salary items, would amount to more than $300,000.00, Mr. McPherrin estimated. The fact that the budget was not in balance, was not a cause of concern, as yet, it was stated, because it was felt that considerable more state revenue would be forthcoming when the Legislature completes the present apportionment bill. Mr. Darby, who had just returned from Sacramento, expressed the opinion that we might anticipate an additional $14,000.00 from this source. Even so, it was pointed out, sufficient funds would not be available to improve salary schedules for our teachers and other personnel. The increase in State revenues resulting from the passage of Proposition 2 will be offset in our District, it was explained, by the expiration this year of our special school tax which otherwise would have produced an additional $16,000.00 of income.

Teacher Shortage Discussed.

Next on the program, Mr. Linley presented Mr. Don Phillips, representing the Lakeside teaching staff. Mr. Phillips reviewed statistics which indicate that San Diego County, as well as the State at large, will be confronted by a serious teacher shortage this year. Among the facts brought out, for example, were that San Diego State College is training only 110 teachers this year while San Diego City Schools alone, will require more than 400 teachers. The City of Los Angeles, it was also noted, will need more teachers than will be trained in all of the teacher training schools of the State.

Teacher Salary Outlook Not Bright

Mr. Phillips also expressed concern over the teacher salary outlook in this District for the coming year. Budget limitations due to the expiration of the special school tax will place Lakeside at a serious disadvantage when compared to the more than thirty other districts in the County which will continue to authorize increased school taxes. Another complication, Mr. Phillips explained, will be the requirement that this District assume the full expense this year for operating the program for mentally handicapped children. The cost of this class, estimated at $9,000.00 per year, has previously been born by the County Superintendent of Schools.

In conclusion, Mr. Phillips urged that serious attention be given to the restoration of the expiring special tax. Otherwise, he said, our failure to keep Lakeside salaries comparable to those paid elsewhere in the County, may have a disastrous effect on our educational program.

Citizens Committee Reports On School Budget Study.

Mr. Tom Barkdull, President of the Lakeside Education Committee, reported that careful consideration of the school budget by that group had convinced him that the only possibility of finding funds for the necessary salary increases would be to continue the present excess tax levy. No formal action recommending a tax increase had been taken, as yet, by the Citizens group, Mr. Barkdull stated, but the problem would receive the full attention of the group at their next meeting.

Public Meeting on Building Program Proposed.

In concluding the discussion of the budget, Trustee Linley expressed appreciation on behalf of the Board of Trustees, for the interest in School problems displayed by the audience, and to the panel members for their assistance. "We are sincerely interested in keeping the community fully informed concerning their schools," Mr. Linley said, "and will be glad to schedule future public meetings such as this on the school building program and similar problems, whenever they are desired."

Teacher Recruitment Trip Authorized.

Following the budget hearing, the school board turned its attention to the subject of teacher procurement for next year. The Board considered the following points listed by the District Superintendent, on the basis of a study completed by him at the direction of the Board.

(a) Principal California teacher training schools have been canvassed and report that practically no candidates are interested in applying for positions in this area.

(b) For budgetary and other reasons, we should endeavor to fill as many as possible of our vacancies with good beginning teachers. This year, faced with an acute teacher shortage, and with a lower than average salary schedule, the only teachers who are likely to seek positions to Lakeside will be teachers who have been rejected for tenure or other reasons, elsewhere. On the average, such teachers will cost from three to six hundred dollars more than beginning teachers.

(c) Many teachers training institutions in the Middle West have been contacted and have indicated that they have good beginning teachers who are interested in coming to this District.

(d) Several other districts in San Diego County, including El Cajon, La Mesa, Coronado, and San Diego, have already successfully recruited teachers for the coming year by visiting the Middle West.

After considering these points, it was moved by Mr. Linley and seconded by Mr. Claycomb, and carried by a vote of three to two, that the District Superintendent be authorized to depart for Detroit, Michigan, on or about the 10th of April, to be gone about two weeks, for the purpose of interviewing and employing teachers from the teacher training institutions of the states of the Middle West and West including Michigan, Minnesota, South Dakota, Colorado, and Arizona, etc., as required and that his transportation not to exceed the cost of first class rail fare and incidental hotel and miscellaneous expenses to be paid by the District.

The District Superintendent reported that as previously explained to the Board, he had made arrangements to purchase a personal car in the East, and that in line with recommendations of representatives of other Districts who have recently returned from similar trips, this car would be used for the return trip and in traveling to the various schools to be contacted, it being understood that District funds used for operating the car would be limited to the amounts which would otherwise be required for return rail fare. This plan was approved by the Board.

State To Help On School Fund

The state will make up a gap of $13,000 between the school budget and estimated revenue when allocations are made to school districts by the Legislature, James McPherrin, Lakeside Union School District business manager said yesterday.

The district's budget has been set at $301,919, McPherrin said, and the district's revenue has been estimated at $288,000. He explained that for purposes of the budget the revenue estimate was purposely kept conservative and that the district has nothing to worry about in meeting the budget.

Average daily attendance for the district is estimated at 1050, 90 pupils more than last year.

Civic Group Elects Irv Lyons

Irvin Lyons will serve as president of the Lakeside Civic Corporation with Harvey Huffman as vice president.

New board members are Rev. Earl Bigelow and Douglas Biggs with Jack McLean already on the board. Eddie Harrison is Fire Chief and Mrs. Jim Eakes, secretary-treasurer.

The group met on Wednesday evening together with the Memorial Building Committee to discuss some important issues.

E. C. Valley Bus To Have Evening Runs

Residents of Lakeside will have local bus service to and from El Cajon on Friday and Saturday evenings during a trial schedule to be conducted by the El Cajon Valley Bus Lines.

The schedule now begins at 6:15 p. m. and will continue hourly to 11:15 p. m. the last bus leaving El Cajon at 10:25 and Lakeside 10:45 p. m.

This will be a great convenience to shoppers. A survey is being conducted by the new owner to determine what times the bus service is most needed. Results will be announced later.

Alpine Report

The Commissioners of the Alpine Fire Protection District have just completed the lease from Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bratcher on the property owned by them on Highway 80, formerly known as the "Barn."

This property will be the new and permanent location of the Alpine Fire Department. The firemen will make alterations in the building, which when completed will provide offices for the Commissioners and living quarters for a man permanently on duty. The new location will be occupied sometime the latter part of April or the middle of May. At this time all Fire Dist. business will be operated from this location, including issuance of fire permits.

The Commissioners have called for a survey of the Dist. by the Board of Fire Underwriters for the purpose of obtaining lower fire insurance rates for the District. The survey will be made during the summer.

The obtaining of new quarters, with offices, and the appointment of a permanent fireman on duty, and the concentration of all fire dept., business at one location, is a decided improvement and should help greatly in the reduction of insurance rates. The forward looking policy of continued improvement merits the commendation of all residents of the District.

Because of their increased popularity, Marguerite Charbonneau, of El Cajon's "Flowers by Marguerite" came to Alpine on Wednesday to the regular meeting of Gamma Gamma Chapter, and gave a very interesting and complete demonstration of the making of fiber flowers. (Free classes are given by Marguerite, in her shop every Monday afternoon and evening).

As April Fool's Day is so close, hostesses Alice Klipp and Margaret Fulk made the most of it; hanging a sign on the front door directing callers to the rear door, where there was an other sign "April Fool Go Back To The Front." Another prank was stuffing a wad of cotton into the cream-puffs instead of the regular cream filling.

As their regular philanthropic project, a toy shower was held for the San Diego Children's Home. Many other service organizations in San Diego take care of the many needs of this home, but feel the daily necessities of living are more important than toys. As they do play an important part in helping the stricken child to be happy, the Alpine ESA girls have taken this toy project as one part of their charitable efforts, and make several donations each year. Mrs. Alice B. White, head of the home, spent one evening telling the group of the benefits received from such offerings, which gave everyone an added interest in the project.

Two guests, Jane Fox, Japatul Valley, and Verlie Boyd, of Alpine, were introduced at the meeting.

The Regular Monthly Meeting, Board of Directors, Alpine Youth Center, will be held at the Alpine Women's Club, Monday, April 6, 8:00 p. m.

Work on the new Youth Center Building has been delayed, due to technicalities in the issuance of building permits. However, this difficulty should be cleared shortly and the building rushed to completion before the scheduled date of the Alpine Community Mountain Carnival, which will be held on the Youth Center grounds, June 6 and 7.

Mrs. Emma Foster celebrated her 87th birthday recently with a family dinner. Among those present were: Mrs. Florence Irwin, El Cajon, daughter... two sons, Jack Foster and wife from San Diego; and C. W. Foster, of Foster's Trailer Court, Alpine; granddaughter Mrs. Pat Heyser and family, of Alpine.

A resident of Alpine 30 years, Mrs. Foster started the Log Cabin, which was then an old street car. She became famous for her homemade pies.

Virgil Ring will enter Mercy Hospital April 3 for surgery.

The new Sutton Health Foundation, formerly the Stewart Ranch, has been opened by Dr. Sutton, formerly of El Cajon. The institution has been nationally advertised and should bring additional fame to Alpine and its climate.

The newly formed Alpine Better Business Organization will hold its next regular meeting at Bailey's Cafe, on April 6, 12 noon till 1:00 p. m. Al Hinkle has promised an interesting report from the Police and Traffic Committee.

Perkin's Bros. Store, Descanso, was robbed for the second time in two weeks, on Monday. Sheriff's Deputies believe it is the work of juveniles, preparing for entrance requirements for matriculation at Stone College, San Quentin.

Following three weeks in hospital with asthma and complications, John M. Jones is recuperating at his ranch. He will be unable to attend to business affairs for some time.

Johnnie Talamantes has written his mother, from Korea, that he hopes to return home on rotation by August.

Mrs. Arthur Pratt, Alpine's famous equestrienne, will ride one of her trained horses in the May 24 Parade and Show at Escondido. Mrs. Pratt created a sensation with her famous mare Larked Linda at the Silver Spur Rodeo at Yuma. Mr. Arthur Pratt is recovering nicely from an attack of the flu. During his recuperation he is editing his colored motion picture film brought back from their recent trip to Africa.

Sunday evening's services at Alpine Community Church were distinguished by unusually fine music. The singing of the choir, with solos by Muriel Bowls, Michael Kern, Gail Wilson, Sharon Ingels, Eunice Hamron and Hosmer McKoon; the excellent instrumentation by Gail Wilson, organist, gave a beauty and solemnity to the divine service that was truly inspiring.

Dr. Roger Larson, of the Alpine Community Church is bringing together a group of Junior High School students for monthly parties at the homes of the members, under the capable leadership of Mrs. R. F. Runbeck. No formal organization is contemplated at this time, but the group will operate on the same principle as the Pilgrim Fellowship, which Dr. Larson has built into such a fine organization of High School students. Dr. Larson has proven to be a competent advisor and a firm friend of the young people of Alpine, and the parents are assured, by one with forty-three years of close association with boys, they will never find a better friend than Dr. Roger Larson.

The Boy Scouts of Alpine proved themselves capable of caring for themselves under adverse conditions during the Overnight Camp at Lost Valley. Despite the rain, snow and sleet, accompanied by high winds, every boy kept himself dry and warm, maintained his pace during the five mile hike out of the Valley to the School bus, and returned home in perfect condition. This was the result of the careful inspection of each boy's equipment by Scoutmaster Mitchell before leaving Alpine, and the co-operation of the older Scouts instructing the younger boys.

A meeting will be held at El Cajon School, on Monday, April 6, at 7:30 p. m. for all Scouts and Scoutleaders registered for the National Scout Jamboree. During this meeting a Special Troop will be formed for the Grossmont District, adult leaders will receive instructions, and general Jamboree information will be issued.

Mr. Clark, Rural Route carrier, Route 1, Alpine, is on an extended sick leave. The route is being serviced by Bob Smith during Clark's absence.

The next meeting of the Alpine PTA will be Election Night. Date will be announced later.

Wm. Meader has returned home from the hospital following surgery.

The Great Books Discussion Group meets every second and fourth Thursday at 8:00 p. m. at the Alpine Library. This group is becoming quite important in the community, the attendance growing rapidly. Everyone interested is invited to attend. Last meeting the subject for discussion was "Freedom and its Meaning."

The Grossmont Hospital Auxiliary will meet Friday, April 10, at 10:00 a. m. at Friendship Hall, Lemon Grove.

Bea La Force has returned from her vacation after spending several days in San Diego shopping, attending shows and visiting friends.

The Alpine Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday evening at the home of Geo. Butcher. General topics of interest to the community of Alpine were discussed.

The following prayer, quoted from the American Magazine for February, has been submitted by Lawrence Titus, to the Pilgrim Fellowship, of Alpine Community Church, for consideration for inclusion in their rituals.

"Let us us not forget, O Lord, that each man is a neighbor, unto the next, no matter if they dwell a stone's throw or miles apart."

If ever we meet a man we think to be a stranger, by his garb, his manner, or his speech, let us look into his heart.

If we find there honor, kindness, and goodwill, he is not a stranger. He is our friend, our welcome neighbor."

This prayer has been submitted because L. Titus has seen the pavements of great cities; the by-ways of a mountain village, and the desert sands, moistened by the tears of loneliness. And for every tear there grew a weed of bitterness and resentment.

An unusual part of the ceremony was the representation of four generations of the family since the Great-grandmother of Teresa Wallingford was present. An unusual fact too, is that Sharon Nichols is the aunt of Teresa.

'The Youth Speaks'

By J. C. La Suer

The new Junior High School on Ballantyne Lane has had a problem choosing its school colors. Some of the colors mentioned were dusty rose and Paris gray, orange and blue, red and green. So far none have been chosen.

Have you noticed the fence being built around the same school?

It looks like El Cajon will soon have its own "Youth Symphony." According to William Lawson, 365 S. Mollison, director, a number of youths are showing interest and he hopes to be organized in the near future. Mr. Lawson invites all youthful musicians who are interested to call him at H4-0681.

The newly established Youth Recreational Center on the corner of Copley and Main Streets is coming along fine but like most projects only a few of the faithful seem to be turning out to help ready the big building for use. More boys and girls are needed and it looks to me like they could use a few adults (especially mothers) to bring a lunch on Saturdays, as those working there many times work all day with no food but a coke and candy bar.

There is a terrific need for more Little League sponsors immediately. Are all the potential ball players outside of our district going to be denied the opportunity of playing ball this coming season?

All of the cadets of the Military Science classes in Grossmont and Helix High Schools are living in ecstasy this week in anticipation of the Military Ball they are holding Friday, April 10 at the Officers Club in Balboa Park. Their dates are in a tizzy too, getting properly equipped, you know, frills and ribbons.

This week we will describe a youth from the Bible. Next week we shall give the answer. This boy was the eighth son of his father. He was born at Bethlehem. He was a shepherd. He was a close friend to Jonathan. He played music to a mad king. He was very brave. His name means "Beloved." Who is he?

AND WHY NOT?

To the children, the coming of Easter Morn with the excitement of the Easter egg hunt, is almost as thrilling as Christmas. At the Dean Stitt home, 520 Homer, there was a large family dinner with an egg hunt for the children in the morning. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gross, Karen and Davey, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Cousineau, Pamela, Carol and Brian, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lepper, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lepper and Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Stitt.

The Easter Rabbit was very generous at the C. E. Rockerhausen home at 561 Live Oak, where he left candy eggs as well as the usual gayly colored variety. In some mysterious manner, these were marked with the children's names, which added excitement to the hunt. They were required to find their baskets, then the eggs, and games were played, such as rolling the eggs across the lawn with their noses, and other amusing diversions. Cup cakes made into make-believe nests with tiny candy eggs and a wee bunny on top were given the little folk to take home. Children who came to enjoy young John Rockerhausen's Easter party were Jimmy Kaufman, Kenneth McMillen and his cousin Carolyn, Gregory Vigen, and Tommy Van Cleave.

Birthdays also fall on Easter, and Mrs. Arthur Salgado celebrated with a happy family gathering at the residence, 712 Highland. Coming to join her husband and sons with Happy Birthday wishes were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Mantle, a brother Marvin Mantle, her grandmother, Mrs. Adah Gilbert, and an uncle, Russell Mantle.

PREBYTERIAN TEA

Following the ground-breaking ceremonies on April 12, for the new Presbyterian Chapel on the Hill, there will be a tea in the present church building. Presiding at the tea and coffee-urns will be Mesdames J. K. Field, Victor Bitter, Harlan Driscoll and Alex Gay.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle K. Singo, 504 Van Court, are the happy parents of their third daughter, born at Naval Hospital March 30th. Her name is Martha Milo, and she weighed six pounds, four and a half ounces. The Singos also have a son.

Mrs. Jerry Ashcroft is house guest at the home of Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Philip Singleton, 511 Van Court. Mrs. Ashcroft is from Phoenix, and will visit her sister for several weeks.

Adult Education classes promote good neighborliness as well as fundamentals. Mrs. Donald White, Mrs. Earl McDaniel and Mrs. Ed Schwartz have learned the value and pleasure in their good neighbors as all three women are students in Adult Sewing Class at Grossmont.

Mrs. Bradley Tidwell, 625 Medford is in Naval Hospital where she underwent surgery on her eye, two weeks ago. She will remain in the hospital for another two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schwendmen spent Easter week vacation visiting his mother in Desert Hot Springs and friends in Yuma, Ariz.

Mrs. Thomas Avery Scott, 433 Falmouth, was hostess to her sister, Mrs. W. G. Lewis, Bobby and Kay Evelyn, of Redlands, during Easter week. The guests left Monday. Mr. Lewis is with the M. P. detachment serving at one of the Korean Island prison camps, with the Army.

Mrs. Paul Hatch, a recent bride and daughter of Mrs. Thomas Scott, has taken an apartment in San Diego and is with the Telephone Company. Her husband who is with the Navy in Korean waters is expected to return within the next few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kemp, 260 Chatham, journeyed up to San Bernardino to see the Orange Show and reported it was very fine.

The George E. Clarks, 694 Brockton, have another new horse in their corral, as of Easter Sunday. This is a young gentle mare for their son Joe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor, 261 Chatham, drove to Long Beach last week end to bid adieu to a Navy friend who is leaving for Korean waters.

Also away last week-end were the George S. McHenry's of 234 Dryden Rd. who spent the time at Crestline with a relative.

VALLEY GUN CLUB

Sunday scores were very good at the field for TRAP shooting Sunday. Bill Robertson shot 50 out of 50; Paul Workman, 49 out of 50; Louis Ontiveras, Stan Eggers and Frank Kemp each 47 out of 50.

The Martin Sipes and the George Clarks gathered at the Herbert Howards at 720 Highland for a congenial evening on Saturday evening watching a special TV show.

RUMMAGE SALE

Cancer Will Strike "One Out of Five"

Thousands of San Diego County homes are receiving this week what might well be life-saving facts from the American Cancer Society, it has been announced by W. Wade Ambrose, campaign chairman for the Cancer Crusade.

"The seven danger signals of Cancer have been mailed to over 100,000 homes," Ambrose said. "Anyone who has not received the signals may obtain a copy by simply writing to 'Cancer, San Diego'. The signs are issued to aid in early detection of cancer, when chances for cure are infinitely better."

The Cancer Crusade during April, Ambrose explained, is to raise San Diego County's quota of $87,200 for the American Cancer Society's three-point program of research, education to increase early detection and treatment, and service to cancer patients. The April Crusade also is as much, or more, an educational program as a fund raising drive, he said.

"Cancer research is supported by the American Cancer Society in a persistent quest for the cause and cure for cancer, that dread disease which eventually will strike one out of five," Ambrose said, "so this threat will be removed from our lives and children's. Until that cure is found, education can do much to reduce the death toll. For selfish reasons as well as humanitarian ones, everyone is urged to contribute to the Cancer Crusade."

State to Select Forestry Foremen

An April 17 deadline also was announced on filing for these state positions:

Assistant bridge engineer, paying $395 to $481; associate, $481-$584; semi-senior building and loan examiner, $395-$481; assistant utilities engineer, $395-$481; associate $481-$584, and supervising safety engineer for elevators, $530-$644.

Teachers Institute Get Opportunity To Study T. V.

County teachers will have an unusual opportunity to get the latest developments in non-commercial television, at their forthcoming County-wide Spring-Day Institute. The Institute will be held at Balboa Park on Monday, April 13, 1953. One afternoon session meeting will be devoted entirely to non-commercial television. The Television Section Meeting will convene at 1:30 p. m. in the Puppet Theatre. Several prominent persons representing community institutions will give short presentations of background information. One feature will be the staging of a television program titled "Playing Safe with Electricity." Miss Hildegard Hartig, County Schools Science Specialist, will show how teachers can make good use of such non-commercial programs. Since non-commercial television is designed for all community agencies which give information and help to the general public, many citizens may find this Institute television program of interest. All are cordially invited to attend. Details of the program are as follows:

(1) Four short presentations, including:

(a) "A report on nation-wide public interest in non-commercial television" — Raymond E. Denno, Director, Audio-Visual Service, San Diego County Schools.

(b) "Progress report on the eight non-commercial UHF channels now allocated to California" — Francis W. Noel, Chief of Bureau of Audio-Visual Education, State Department of Education.

(c) "How the San Diego area has worked out non-commercial programs with local television stations" — Robert H. Burgert, Director of Instructional Aids, San Diego City Schools.

(d) "The commercial television station and public interest programs" — Howard L. Chernoff, Station Manager and General Manager, Station KFMB-TV.

(2) "Using non-commercial television in the classroom" — Hildegard Hartig, Science Specialist, San Diego County Schools.

The simulated television program will be moderated by DeGraff Stanley, Producer, T-V Experiments, San Diego City Schools. Dan Turner, Supervisor of Visual Instruction for the San Diego Gas and Electric Company, will present the show on "Playing Safe with Electricity."

Dramatic highlights of the show include the burning of a model home by overloading the house wiring, and the setting of a fire by flying a kite into electrical wires.

The demonstration emphasizes everyday home safety in the use of electricity.

Choose Driving Time

When ever possible it is wise to choose the off-hours when traffic is lightest to do your driving. Plan your trip so you do most of your driving early in the day, urges the Automobile Club of Southern California. There are fewer cars and trucks then, and you are more likely to be fresh and alert.

FORE WORTH FOUR

CANCER'S 7 DANGER SIGNALS

- 1 Any sore that does not heal.
- 2 A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
- 3 Unusual bleeding or discharge.
- 4 Any change in a wart or mole.
- 5 Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
- 6 Persistent hoarseness or cough.
- 7 Any change in normal bowel habits.

None of these symptoms necessarily means that you have cancer, but any one of them should send you to your doctor. Cancer is usually curable when detected and treated early. Remember the danger signals. Cancer strikes one in five. Strike back. Give to the American Cancer Society.

OBITUARY

One of the best of the thousands of editorials printed on the death of Stalin was undoubtedly the briefest. It appeared in the Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock, and here it is in its entirety: "Sic Semper Tyrannis."

TIME TO CALL IT A DAY

A spokesman for a number of retailing groups and associations, including both chains and independents, recently appeared before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee in opposition to stand-by price controls. He made these six telling points:

1. Stand-by controls are unnecessary and would create more problems than they could correct. 2. They give one man sole discretion to put them into effect. 3. Delegating such broad powers is dangerous when it is considered that we have been in and out of "emergencies" for 20 years. 4. Stand-by controls are inflationary because they tend to curb productivity and push both wages and prices up. 5. Indirect controls can be used, if needed, to control inflation with the least interference with productivity. 6. Stand-by controls duplicate existing functions of other agencies, perpetuate the control philosophy in government, and create a climate of fear.

It is highly significant that the President has not asked for stand-by controls and apparently does not want them. The control philosophy should be buried completely.

WASHINGTON WINDOW

A Unique Weekly Column Reporting
Facts Behind Today's Events and Issues

LIVING COSTS AND STAND-BY CONTROLS

Now that controls — on prices, wages and materials — are being removed, many are wondering what will happen to the cost of living.

Most economists believe that prices, generally, will not rise this year. Infact, some feel that there could be a slight dip.

Many wholesale prices have already dropped, but aside from select meats the housewife is finding little indication of it in the grocery stores. Clothing prices are lower, however.

On the other hand, rents will go up since rent controls are expected to die in all but defense areas by April 30. Gas and electricity prices are also due to increase. Costs of professional services are on the rise.

With the economic forces now at work there is far greater danger of deflation than inflation. Still, this does not mean that there is no chance of inflation and rising prices. Intensifying the cold war or enlarging the shooting war could bring these about.

To meet this possible danger the Senate Banking and Currency Committee is holding hearings on whether to establish economic controls on a stand-by basis. They have before them the experience of the first six months after the outbreak of the Korean War in June, 1950. Inflation then cost consumers over $17 billions, shot consumers' prices up over 8% before any adequate controls could be legislated.

Wage controls are another problem. Wages are always under the "control" of the employer. The offsetting force in our free society is the pressure of individual and collective bargaining.

Historically, widespread movements to raise wages have started because price rises have increased the cost of living of workers which their pay envelopes won't meet. If prices are kept down, voluntarily or through use of controls, such wage pressures are lessened.

Part of the objection to wage controls is the administrative red tape in which it becomes wrapped. Not long before controls were discontinued recently, the backlog of wage cases requiring government sanction had reached 20,000. These had already been agreed to by both management and labor.

THE AMERICAN WAY

CAPITOL
AND COUNTY
News Letter
by RALPH R. CLOYD
ASSEMBLYMAN

Several controversial bills fell by the wayside or were delayed during the week. The Government Organization Committee postponed action on two anti B girl bills.

A bill making Bible reading in schools permissive was taken under advisement by the Assembly Education Committee — a polite way of saying, "The bill is dead."

Lobbyist Screening Committee of the Assembly and Senate have refused credentials to Arthur Samish, Representative of the California State Brewers Institute.

The Senate Committee denied a lobbying card to pension promoter George McLain. He said that he intends to request a hearing.

A bill designed to define the powers of counties in regulating billboards through zoning and other ordinances failed to get approval of a Senate Committee.

An attempt to liberalize workmen's compensation insurance fell short of the necessary votes to get it out of committee.

A measure that would end death penalties in California has been beaten in the Assembly Judiciary Committee.

The Assembly Ways and Means Committee cut the civilian defense budget $328,000 and drew fire from Warren. He asserted this would virtually wreck the program. The committee action would do away with seven regional officers and several other jobs. The Assembly Committee voted the cut when it was developed that there are twenty-one drawing salaries from $10,000 to $12,000 per year and 23 over $6,000. It voted to eliminate the brass.

Warren explained that more than 20,000 people are working around the clock on the ground observer crew. He said, "With all the sincerity I possess I urge the Legislature not to throttle civilian defense."

The budget will still have $1,076,517 for civilian defense. The request was for $1,404,937.

Political editor Earl Behrens of the San Francisco Chronicle and spokesman for the Correspondence Association, asked the Assembly Rules Committee permission to take pictures of the Legislative Committee during a hearing. There has been a ban on taking pictures either on the floor of the Legislature or of committees for many years. Supporting Behrens in his request were: Dick Bergholtz of the San Diego papers, writers for the Sacramento Bee, and the wire service reporters. They were instructed to draw up some ground rules and submit them to the Rules Committee. Speaker Silliman stated he will ask chairman of committees to take up the subject of picture taking at their next committee meetings.

The ban had been placed on picture taking years ago when photographers would catch members who had fallen asleep in committee meetings.

An Assembly Committee unanimously passed a secret government bill by Assemblyman Brown that the local government bill requires all local agencies from county supervisors and city council down to school and district boards to issue notices of meetings at least 24 hours in advance to newspapers requesting it.

My own bill, designed to seek aid from responsible relatives outside the state and to place a lien on people receiving old age assistance if it was proven they had collected fraudulently, was delayed for one week, in order to work out ways to make the bill more easily enforced. The bill was introduced at the request of San Diego County District Attorney, Don Keller.

Senator Regan's highway bill is out of committee. The Senate will act on it Tuesday. The 4800-mile mainline highway bill would get top priority on increased revenue. Speaker Silliman termed the bill a "political hedge-podge."

Assemblywoman Kathryn Niehouse resigned as a member of the Joint Highway Factfinding Committee, and I was appointed by Speaker Silliman to the position. I was very much pleased by the appointment as the highway legislation is one of the big issues of the session.

Assemblyman Fleury announced that the sub-committee will resume hearings next week on unemployment insurance irregularities. The chiseling may run into millions of dollars a year.

Senator Kraft's bill to raise the Board of Supervisors' pay to $3,400 was sent to the Governor's desk for signature. Assemblyman Bulen's delaying tactics backfired on him when he became confused on methods of legislative procedure and found himself out on a limb with the bill gone.

Phone Rate Hike
Request to Be Heard April 29

The California Public Utilities Commission wants to offer everyone who is interested an opportunity to be heard during public hearings on the application of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company for a statewide 12 percent increase in telephone rates, it was announced here by Commissioner Peter E. Mitchell, who will preside at the hearings.

In a letter to state, city and county officials, farm industrial and trade groups and other organizations, Mitchell called attention to dates of the hearings and said that he should be notified by those who intend to present evidence at hearings or appear as interested parties. He also should be notified if they want copies of the company's application.

Opening hearing, at which the applicant is to begin presentation of its evidence, has been set for 10 a. m., April 29 at the Commission's Courtroom in the State Building, San Francisco. The two days following also have been reserved for hearing. The hearings will be resumed in Los Angeles at 10 a. m. on May 6, with three days set aside for sessions there in Commission offices in the Mirror Building at 145 South Spring Street.

"The Commission staff will carefully examine the applicant's proposals, exhibits and underlying books and records," Mitchell wrote, "and will cross-examine witnesses during the course of the hearings. It is the Commission's desire to afford all interested parties an opportunity to be heard following the company's presentation in each area."

All hearings will be public and anyone who wishes to make a statement will have an opportunity to do so during the original hearings. Commissioner Mitchell said. The time for such public appearances will be announced on the first day of the hearings in San Francisco, on April 29, and the opening day of hearings in Los Angeles, May 6.

Those who are planning to cross-examine witnesses may obtain copies of applicant's exhibits which are available before the hearings by directing a request to the presiding commissioner, at Commission offices in San Francisco. Exhibits are made available so that they may be studied and cross-examination may be prepared in advance, with the object of saving time for all those participating, it was explained.

Make Ironing
Easier

"Don't wait until late in the day to do your ironing," is one of the suggestions University of California Home Advisor Delphine Wilson has for making ironing easier.

Wear comfortable shoes, is another of her suggestions, and if the ironing board is adjustable alternate between standing and sitting.

The ideal ironing arrangement, Mr. Wilson says, is to have a comfortable chair. The chair should have good back support, but no arms. A chair with casters is easier to manage than a chair without them.

One of the common troublemakers when it comes to ironing is a poorly padded board, according to Mrs. Wilson. The board needs a certain amount of "give" without being soft. The cover should be washed frequently to keep scorch marks or soil off the clean clothes.

Any job becomes tiring if it is done too long, the home advisor says. Divide the ironing into smaller batches and do it a little at a time. Don't work so long it becomes tiring, and shift position occasionally to improve blood circulation.

FINNISH EXODUS SLOWED

HELSINKI — Emigration from Finland in 1952 showed a considerable decline over the previous years, according to the Central Bureau of Statistics. It reported only 5,967 received emigration papers, or one third of the total in 1951 and about half the total in 1950. Almost 4,000 of last year's emigrants gave Sweden as their destination.

San Diego County Historical Scrapbook

San Diego Gets
Paid Fire Department . . . . . 1889

The year of 1889 was an important one in the fire-fighting history of San Diego. Prior to that time, the city's fire department had been operated on a volunteer basis. Although fire engines, horses, and hose carts had been purchased from time to time, the equipment had failed to keep pace with the growth of the city.

During the spring and summer of 1888, a series of disastrous fires swept San Diego. Losses were heavy, and when the city charter was adopted in 1889, provision was made for the first time for the organization of a paid fire department. A. B. Cairnes, formerly of New York, became the first chief engineer of the new department, and served as Fire Chief for sixteen years, retiring in 1905.

Shown here, in a photograph from the historical collection of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company, is the elaborate hook and ladder truck which was designed by Cairnes and built in San Diego by Parrott and Erb. The truck is standing in front of the No. 1 Fire Station, which was located between Market and Island, on the west side of Ninth Street.

Lakeside Home Department

My, what a busy time is ahead for the ladies of the Lakeside Home Department. Such interesting meetings have been held during the year so far, and much is yet to be done.

On April 6 many of the members enjoyed looking at the beautiful stock of materials at Mrs. Wolthorn's home in Lakeside Farms. She served coffee and cake to everyone after their wants in the material tour were satisfied. If you are in the market for some beautiful goods of all types, at unbelievable prices, call Mrs. Wolthorn, H4-1424 for more information.

On April 14 the project leaders will meet at the San Diego office of Delphine Wilson for study in Food Preservation, which will be studied in Lakeside meetings during April.

April 22 is the next County Committee meeting which will be held at the Del Mar Fair Grounds. The highlight of the day will be a fashion show by all the women who have made dresses in the beginning sewing classes which have just ended.

April 24 you and I will want to be at the Extension office for study on weight control. How to lose it, gain it, or retain it. This subject is needed by all of us in one way or another, so let's have a good attendance.

May 27 Dr. Barbour, child specialist, will speak at the county committee meeting. Plan ahead to attend this meeting.

The next regular meeting of the Lakeside Home Department will be April 24 starting at 10 a. m. at the Scout Hut in Lakeside Park. Hope to see you there. You will be welcomed!

Protection of Rights Main Job of So. Cal.

Southern California's number one water job continues to be the protection of its established rights on the Colorado River, Chairman Joseph Jensen of the Metropolitan Water District board warned yesterday in a talk before the Water and Power Resources Committee of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

"Before we allow ourselves to become too deeply involved in elaborate and costly new water development projects," Jensen said, "let us find out more about the cost of these proposals, and meantime let us devote our energies to protecting our Colorado River water supplies for which we already have made tremendous investments."

Engineers of the Metropolitan Water District are now engaged in a systematic study of water supplies that may be tapped by Southern California in the years ahead when additional millions in population have reached the limits of this area's Colorado River water resources, Mr. Jensen said. These possible future sources, he indicated, include the Feather River. When such new water sources are needed, Mr. Jensen stated, the huge Metropolitan Water District system will be equipped to bring this supplemental water into Southern California economically and without the burdensome cost to the people of a duplicating supply system.

Mr. Jensen pointed out that the aqueduct system of the Metropolitan Water District has been built and is being extended in a manner that will provide adequate facilities to meet the needs of this Southern California area in the years ahead.

When and as additional water resources are required to meet increasing needs for domestic, industrial and municipal water, the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California will be prepared to deliver such supplies," stated Mr. Jensen.

Mr. Jensen drew attention to the fact that the Metropolitan Water District, which is supplying 48 incorporated cities with Colorado River water, now includes 75 per cent of the population and assessed valuation of the five Southern California counties of Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino, Riverside, and San Diego. This proportion of people and assessed valuation will be increased to about 90 per cent, he pointed out, when areas now in process of annexation have been consolidated with the Metropolitan Water District.

"The heavy preponderance of Southern California population and taxable property now within the Metropolitan Water District places a grave responsibility upon our District organization to maintain both an adequate and economical water supply system for this area," said Mr. Jensen.

"An overlapping water supply system would place an intolerable cost burden upon the very people who have shouldered the financial obligation of planning and building a great water supply project to meet this area's needs for years to come."

Mr. Jensen told the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Committee that his Metropolitan Water District Board is now considering annexation applications from communities in each of the five Southern California counties in the District. These areas, if annexed to the District, he indicated, would "round out" the District's over-all territory.

Another one of your fun get-togethers will be with Shirley Rogers in Fletcher Hills, but call H4-1802 to find the trail out there, an don't miss this one either, you all know'd what good ole time was had at Anna's Corral.

Lakeside Frontier Riders are rid'n on with many plans for push'n ahead an ole man sun is a help'n soon by staying up an hour longer.

Jest want to tell you folks, plan to git up a bit earlier April 19 and ride over to the "Frontier Village" in Cactus Park for another good Chuck House breakfast, you know the kind we mean! Then when you have eat'n all you can hold an your mount can still hold you, we will all ride together down the trail an here's a little secret (it's gonna be a gol-darn-good ride, one you'll love) so join us at nine, for those flap-jacks so fine, bacon 'n eggs n' coffee divine! This is an invitation to all, friends, neighbors, horseman, do come by and fill-up.

One in every five Americans will eventually have cancer, American Cancer Society statisticians estimate.

Wot Goes On . . .

By Millie

From the looks of the weather, me thinks that April and March got mixed up—now really hasn't this past week been one of the most miserable for California, and almost a week of gloomy, cold weather is enough for me. The air is cold and blustery, but thank goodness the sun finally made its way thru the clouds and sure does look good. Sitting here in this little office with the stove out makes me feel like I'm in a refrigerator. You ask why don't I light the heater, well, I have tried, but the mean old thing just won't take hold, so until I can get someone to fix it, I'll freeze.

At our house a big event happened this last week—we are now proud owners of a new television set. The young people in our family thought we were the only ones left in the country who didn't own a TV so after having our young son practically move in with the neighbors for the past two years to watch theirs, the head of the house decided he better do something about it, and ordered one brought in. Needless to say every member of the family is enjoying it, and best of all our young son now stays home, and no doubt the neighbors have also breathed a big sigh of relief.

Easter in Lakeside was certainly inspiring. I attended the Community Church services, and we old timers just couldn't believe our eyes when we saw all these new folks stream in. Both services were packed and the first service saw at least fifty folks standing in the yard listening to the Easter message by way of loud speakers. Passing the Memorial Building where the Baptist Church was having its services, I noticed it too was packed with folks eager to hear the special music and message which had been prepared. I didn't get around to the other churches, but heard everyone of them were filled. This speaks well for our community, just to know people still have faith in the "Resurrection." Without this life would be very empty.

Why is it more of you folks don't come out to the Chamber of Commerce meetings which are held every month. It is open for everyone who is at all interested in the progress of Lakeside, and we need you to help solve the many problems which are coming up in our fast growing community. Come on out next Monday evening at 7 o'clock over in the Kiwanis Hall, enjoy a good dinner and a lively meeting. This is not only for businessmen, but for everyone in the community. A strong Chamber is only as good as you make it. For further information call H4-1549 and I'll try to enlighten you if there are any questions you would like to ask. We hope to see you there.

Reality of Disease and Death
Challenged

"In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death." This declaration from Proverbs (12:28) is the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches. "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject.

A selection from the Gospel of Matthew (8:24,25) tells how Jesus demonstrated the power of the Word in raising from death the daughter of Jairus. When he came to the ruler's house, "He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleeping. And they laughed him to scorn. But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose."

"Jesus proved the Principle, which heals the sick and casts out error, to be divine," declares Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." Again she says, "Sin, sickness, and death must disappear to give place to the facts which belong to immortal man."

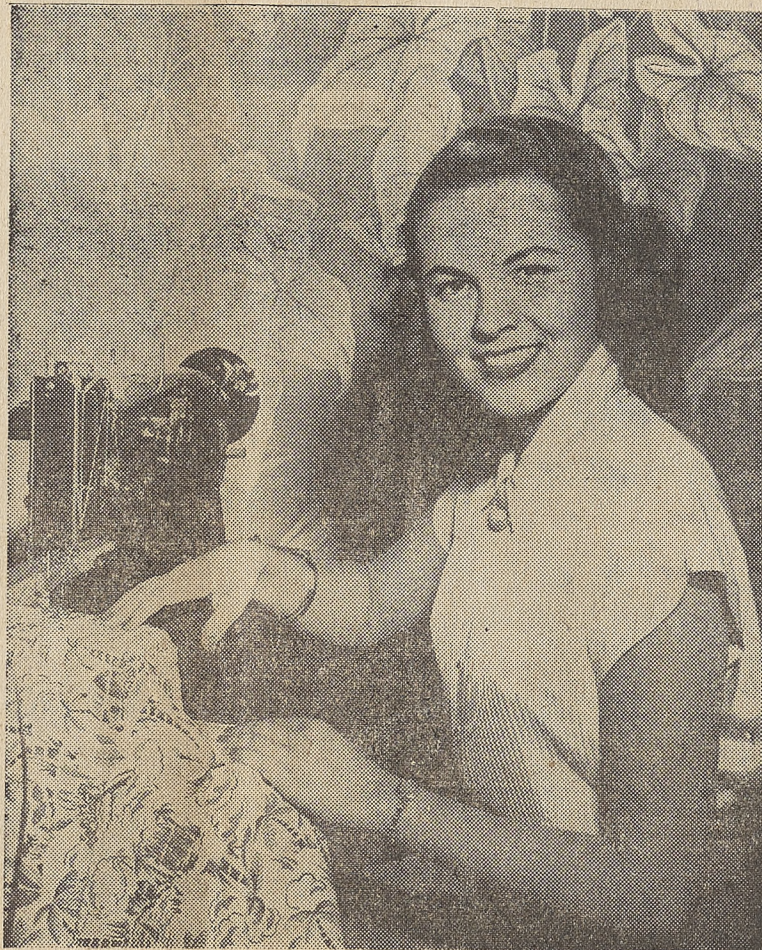

Stars Nigel Bruce and Robert Stack in the first full-length feature Natural Vision film in color, "Bwana Devil," which plays at the El Cajon Theatre Saturday, Sunday, Monday & Tuesday.

County Fair to Give Sewing Machine in Special Contest

Comely Mae Entwistle, the current Fairest of the Fair, shows off the portable sewing machine which will be awarded in a sewing contest at this summer's San Diego County Fair at Del Mar. Cajon Valley residents have been invited to participate.

Milady from El Cajon who enjoys fashioning her own clothes and household articles will have a special and profitable class in which to enter her handicraft at this summer's San Diego County Fair at Del Mar, Mrs. Lorene Bohn, Entry Supervisor, announced this week.

The whole thing in a thimble with the Textile Bag Manufactory is this. The Fair is cooperating with the Textile Bag Manufactory in stimulating the use of cotton bags for sewing.

Therefore, in the Clothing and Textile Division of the premium book, there will appear a class for clothing and household articles made from cotton bags. Cash prizes, totaling $60, plus ribbons and a Pfaff portable sewing machine will be offered. The winner of the machine will be the participant compiling the highest total amount of cash prizes in this class.

Acceptable for competition will be a pair of curtains, dress, luncheon cloth with napkins, mother and daughter dress outfit, and miscellaneous articles. Judging will be on sewing skill and ingenuity, Mrs. Bohn said.

In case the men folk are wondering, the women don't have this contest "all sewed up." There is nothing prohibiting the breadwinner from competing providing he complies with the rules.

Those interested are invited to write to San Diego County Fair, Del Mar, for an entry blank and premium book. These will be mailed as soon as they are ready for distribution.

Fishing Good
In San Diego
County Lakes

Fishing has been good at San Diego County lakes during the week, according to the Outing Bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Many limits of bluegill were taken at San Vicente Lake, which opened this week. Several limits of large bass were made. Bass at Lake Hodges have been running from 3 to 5 pounds. Bluegill angling has been good at Hodges.

Good catches of crappie, perch and catfish were made at Lake Wohlford. Some bass were taken.

Lake Sherwood in Los Angeles County opened last week, and the fishing is reported good. Many catches of large crappie, bluegill and bass were made.

Angling also has been good at Lake Henshaw and along the Colorado River.

Avocado Grovers
To Meet April 13

The regular monthly meeting of the San Diego County Farm Bureau Avocado Department will be held Monday evening, April 13 at the Escondido High School, according to Tom Adams, Chairman.

Fertilizers and methods of fertilizing avocado orchard soils will be the topic. Farm Advisor Don Gustafson will lead the discussion and present an illustrated talk.

SOMERVILLE, Mass. — Secotan, Inc. has developed a new process for quick-tanning of leather that cuts the job from the usually required weeks or months to four minutes. A better quality leather results, the firm claims.

Destruction Of Road Signs Costs
Taxpayers $250,000

Destruction of highway signs by vandals has cost Southland taxpayers more than $250,000 in the past decade, according to a report released today by the Sign Posting Department of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Most of the vandalism is done by motorists shooting at signs from their automobiles. This destructive "sport" has been most prevalent in rural areas adjacent to large population centers, such as Antelope Valley in Los Angeles County and Mission Valley near San Diego.

Last year it cost nearly $17,000 to replace signs mutilated by gunfire along Southland highways. Cost to replace each enamel-covered steel road marker runs more than $6.50. Under ordinary conditions these signs will last 30 years.

Destruction of signs by vandals has been reduced in some areas in Southern California through strict enforcement of laws regarding firearms carried in automobiles.

The Auto Club offers a reward of $25 to anyone who brings about the arrest and conviction of persons destroying highway signs.

In San Diego County there were 2900 temporary signs placed, 1387 permanent signs and 207 that had to be replaced.

Music Association
Has Membership Drive

The San Diego Civic Music Association will hold its sixth annual Membership Campaign. A month earlier this year, it will take place during the week of April 6 thru 11, with Headquarters located at the Manor Hotel again.

This non-profit co-operative organization has been bringing to San Diego the finest in music and artists of wide reputation both here and abroad. This season and past seasons have included Rubinstein, Theobald, Shaw, Chorale, Ballet Theatre, and the Association is looking forward to a season of equal importance.

Admission to these concerts is by membership card only, and those wishing to avail themselves of the coming musical events are invited to join the Association during campaign week by paying annual dues. After Saturday, April 11, the membership will be closed for the 1953-54 season. No tickets are sold for single concerts.

Officers of the Civic Music Association always welcome suggestions of members as to type of concerts desired. Information may be obtained at Headquarters at the Manor Hotel, April 6 thru 11, or telephoning Main 8-2294.

Camp Fire Girls Close Peanut Sale This Week

The Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds first county-wide peanut sale winds up this week-end.

Reports coming into headquarters indicate that the goal of 130,000 cans of peanuts will be reached by Saturday when the sale ends.

"If we can reach our goal," said Miss Rosemary Waters, the red feather agency's executive director, "it means there will be sufficient funds to supplement our operating budget and make some much needed improvements at Camp Wolahi, the Cuyamaca Mountain Camp Fire Girls summer camp."

Miss Waters pointed out that the lodge at the camp was built 25 years ago and is no longer adequate to accommodate the increasing number of girls now attending camp in summertime. "It was originally planned to house 50 girls a week for 3 weeks. This summer nearly 1000 girls will attend the camp in an eight week period," she said.

She also added that plans are being made now to rebuild the lodge completely within the next

"Safety On All Streets" Slogan For 1953

An urgent "all out" plea for all citizens in San Diego County to adopt "safety on all streets" as an immediate means of slowing down the current upswing of traffic slaughter has been issued by Fred H. Rohr, aircraft corporation president and Chairman of the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council.

Rohr pointed out that the death toll nationally in January took a seven per cent increase in traffic deaths over January of 1952 and that "every San Diego County resident must make it his individual duty to hold down traffic fatalities in this area."

The San Diego County Traffic Safety Council was formed by citizen request this year in January after 235 persons were killed in San Diego County last year.

The offices are at 435 W. Broadway in San Diego where Executive Director Lisle F. Shoemaker is speeding many county-wide campaigns on traffic safety into action.

"But it will take a little time five years. "We're hopeful that our peanut sale will give us some reserve for our lodge fund, but in the meantime we have to take care of such immediate needs as tent flooring, new screening, hot water tanks and increased food storage space."

The Camp Fire Girls youth program serves 3000 girls from 7 through 18 in San Diego County.

for us to get these campaigns organized," Shoemaker pointed out.

"What we need now is every driver's pledge to make safety on San Diego city, county, and state highways a personal campaign of his own," Shoemaker added.

Demo's To Plan Comeback Fight

Cast for the first time in 20 years in the role of a minority, Democrats of San Diego County will be seeking the comeback trail next week when they play host to Mrs. India Edwards, vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Mrs. Edwards will be a visitor Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Her only formal address is scheduled for the 18th anniversary dinner of the League of Democratic Women, on Thursday — but she will participate in a continuing "political workshop" throughout her stay.

Accompanying Mrs. Edwards to San Diego will be Mrs. Clara Schirpser, national committee-woman for California; Mrs. Elizabeth Snyder, state committee vice chairman, and Miss Jane O'Mahady of Greensburg, Pa., vice president of the Young Democrats of America.

First workshop event will be a panel discussion, "How To Win Local and National Elections," in Hotel San Diego at 1 p. m. Wednesday. A civic reception there at 5:30 will be presided over by Mrs. Blessing Muehling, president of the League of Democratic Women, and Mrs. Clinton D. McKinnon, wife of the former congressman who is now his party's Southern California chairman. At 8 Mrs. Edwards will join with San Diego County Young Democrats in a discussion of the question, "How Well Are Republicans Keeping Their Promises?"

The Foothill area east of San Diego will be the locale for a Thursday morning seminar on community political interests at Ernie's Rancho, followed by a noon luncheon. Southeast San Diego women's Democratic organizations will give a tea for Mrs. Edwards at 4:30 in Gibraltar Hall, 29th and Clay streets. The League dinner is set for 6:30 in the Venetian Room of U. S. Grant Hotel.

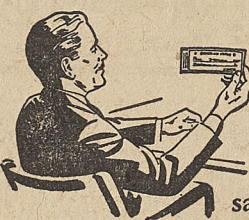

Foreign policy will be the subject of a 10 a. m. assembly discussion Friday at Mission Beach Women's Club, 840 Santa Clara Pl. Beach area. Democrats will have Mrs. Edwards as their luncheon guest that day in the Driftwood, 1002 Santa Clara Pl. She will confer with state and county central committee members in Hotel San Diego at 4 p. m., followed by a Men's Democratic Club cocktail party at 5.

Miss Louise McLean is chairman of the League dinner meeting, with Mmes. Zella Crown and Frances Morse heading the workshop plans.
